If you are tired and want rest, you are like a good many millions of others, but if you'll wait long enough you'll find yourself facing the prospect of a long rest and won't like it.

Weather President Wilson will return from Europe a greater man in the eyes of the world is the question uppermost in Washington. Both Democrats and Republicans concede that his trip abroad is the turning point in his career.

Most people go through life confusing causes, effects and unrelated circumstances and drawing wrong conclusions from the jumble. Because Shakespeare was a poet does not mean that you can become a second Shakespeare by hunting rabbits on a farmer's land without permission.

He made no effort to preach a sermon on tobacco or booze, though he uses neither of them. He is a farmer, and always when we have seen him in town we have wondered at his cheery disposition and enviable robust health. Apparently he has never had a worry in life. He always carries a smile, and the impression he has left with us is one of absolute contentment—a man at peace and ease with himself and the world. This week we learned why. He told us unhesitatingly that he was not burdened with wealth. "In fact," he said, "I have to work every day, but I enjoy working. Eat? You bet I eat, three times a day and all they put before each time. My work creates an appetite and it is not dulled by either tobacco or booze. If men knew half the enjoyment these things rob them of at their meals, they would never touch them again."

No one can successfully argue with this man, for he is, getting the most life has to offer.

NEW HURRICANE.

Wheeler Cherry and family moved to the Henry Bailey farm last week.

Mrs. Stella Spivey visited Henry Spivey's Sunday.

Mae Allen and Bill Walker were quitly married at Hensley Dodson's Sunday. Those who attended the wedding were: Miss Clyde Jackson and Bedford Brown, Settie Cason and Bud Walker, and Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Walker. We wish them a long and happy life.

Mrs. Marshall Hall of Cookeville visited her mother, Mrs. McNew last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Purcell visited

Don't trifle with a cold—it's dangerous.
You can't afford to risk Influenza.
Keep always at hand a box of Standard cold remedy for 26 years—in tablet form—safe, sure, no opiates—breaks up a cold in 24 hours—relieves grip in 3 days. Money back if it fails. The genuine box has a Red top with Mr. Hill's picture. At All Drug Stores.

STONE.

R. L. Meadows and family, who have been making their home in Nashville for the past year, have moved here, and will make their home with Mrs. Shoulders.

Mrs. Herrod VanHooser visited B. S. VanHooser and family at Whitleyville last week.

W. C. Heady, of Spencer, and Shelby Dudley, of Gainesboro, were here last week.

R. L. Meadows and Misses Kate and Bonnie Shoulders and Little Claudine Meadows visited in Gainesboro Thanksgiving.

W. J. Sone returned from the Old Hickory Powder Plant at Nashville last Sunday.

The farmers are most done gathering corn out of the back-water bottom.

Miss Kate Shoulders has returned from a visit of several months in Nashville.

Herrod VanHooser got one of his feet burned several days ago, and has been unable to work on that account.

Mrs. Shoulders is having the old store house torn down, and is having a house built to replace the one which was washed away last winter.

A Tennessee editor (we mention no name) having taken some "moonshine," got a wedding account and a sale mixed, and served to his readers this dope.

William Smith, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Smith, was disposed at auction to Lucy Anderson on my farm one mile east of here in the presence of seventy guests including the following, to-wit: Two mules, twelve head of cattle. The Reverend Jackson tied nuptial the least averaging 1,250 pounds on the hoof. The beautiful home of the bride was tastefully decorated with a see-wash calf, a spade, a sulky rake, one feed grinder, one set double harness almost new pronounced Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by one milch cow five years, one Jersey cow, to be fresh next April, carrying a bunch of flowers in her hand and looking charming in a gown made of light spring wagon, two boxes of apples, two racks of hay one grindstone, mouline deori trimmed with about 150 bushel of of spuds. The groom is well known and popular young man and has always stood well among society circles of twelve Berkshire hogs, while the bride is an accomplished and talented school teacher of a splendid drove of Poland-China—pedirees if desired. Among the beautiful presents were two sets of knives and forks, one spring harrow, one wheelbarrow, one go-cart, other articles too numerous to mention. The bridal couple left yesterday on an extended trip, term of twelve months time, extended to responsible parties, otherwise spots cash luncheon will be served at the table. After this Mr. and Mrs. Smith will go to house, keeping in a cozy home at the corner of main and Doctor R. L. Granby, auctioneer.
